

BRUNNER FARMHOUSE and GARDENS

A community gathering place for Broomfield

Located in the heart of "The Field" Open Space, Brunner Farmhouse and Gardens combines local history with a park-like setting including 12 colorful gardens

640 Main St., Broomfield, Co 80020
Northeast corner of Main St. & Midway Blvd.

BRUNNER FARMHOUSE AND GARDENS PROVIDE A COMMUNITY GATHERING PLACE FOR ALL TO ENJOY

- A place to relax, have a picnic, hear a concert or walk in Open Space
- One of the highest points in Broomfield offering outstanding views
- Meeting place for more than 50 local community groups and non-profits
- Gardens always remain open to the public, however events held inside of the farmhouse can only be hosted by approved groups

LOCAL HISTORIC SIGNIFICANCE

- Built in 1908 when Broomfield was mostly farms and ranches
- Former residence of three generations of the Brunner Family; relocated in 1998 to the site of the former Kozisek family farm
- Restored as an example of a typical farmhouse in the 1910-1920-time frame to provide a connection to our past and our historical cultural values
- Tours of the farmhouse by appointment only
