

August 21, 2023: The Broomfield Police Department has arrested two people accused of breaking into several vehicles over the weekend.

The trespasses happened overnight Saturday into Sunday in the area of Arista Place and Broomfield Lane. Twenty-four-year-old Charles Dowell and 33-year-old Alicia Hernandez were booked into the Broomfield Detention Center on felony warrants out of Denver, and are awaiting additional charges in connection with the weekend trespasses.

Both were found with a large amount of property including small bags, loose change, sunglass cases, paperwork, and more. At least three victims have been identified.

The BPD is asking anyone else whose vehicle was trespassed in the Arista neighborhood over the weekend to please contact Detective Pihlak at rpihlak@broomfield.org or 720-887-3158.
