February 24, 2022: On Wednesday night, Feb. 23, the Broomfield Police Department received tips concerning a student who made threats against Prospect Ridge Academy Charter School. Officers made contact with the student Wednesday evening and initiated an investigation.

Out of respect for the concerns of the community, school officials made the decision to close the school out of an abundance of caution on Thursday, Feb. 24. There is no threat to the community at this time.

The police department investigations unit, along with school resource officers, will remain in constant communication with the school. No additional information is available for release at this time. School is scheduled as normal for Friday, Feb. 25. Thank you for your patience and understanding during this incident.
