August 9, 2021: The Broomfield Police Department has arrested two people in connection with a robbery and attempted homicide that occurred on Friday, August 6 at the Camden Flatiron Apartments located at 120 Edgeview Drive in Broomfield.

Jeremiah Scott and Pharell Ausby, both 18-years-old, were arrested for Attempted First Degree Murder and Robbery and are being held at the Broomfield Detention Center.

The incident happened just before noon in the parking lot of building four. The suspects are accused of arranging on Facebook Messenger to meet the victim and buy his car. During the meet-up a shot was fired at the victim and his cell phone was taken. Thankfully no one was injured during the attempted robbery of the vehicle. An investigation by Officers and Detectives led to the arrest of both Scott and Ausby.

The BPD encourages everyone who is selling an item online to utilize a "Safe Trade Spot" which are designated locations at law enforcement offices where buyers and sellers can meet in public under surveillance to complete in-person transactions. There's no charge for the service. The parking lot of the Broomfield Police Department at 7 DesCombes Drive is a designated "Safe Trade Spot."
